SUMMARY STATEMENT BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON MATTERS OF WHICH THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS SEIZED AND ON THE STAGE REACHED IN THEIR CONSIDERATION

1. Pursuant to rule 11 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, the Secretary-General wishes to submit hereunder the list of items of which the Security Council is currently seized, with references in parentheses to the previous summary statements that have been issued covering consideration of each item.

2. It will be recalled that in the interest of economy the Secretary-General reproduces only once annually the full, up-to-date list of items of which the Security Council is seized. In fulfilment of his responsibility under rule 11, an addendum to the basic list is issued weekly, making reference to those items on which further action has been taken by the Council during the week covered or indicating that there has been no change during that period.

3. In the course of 1992, the Security Council included the following item on the agenda of its 3046th meeting, held at the level of heads of State and Government on 31 January 1992, and completed its consideration at the same meeting:

> The responsibility of the Security Council in the maintenance of international peace and security (see S/23370/Add.4).

4. Also in the course of 1992, the Security Council included the following item on the agenda of its 3080th meeting, held on 21 May 1992, and concluded its consideration of the item at the same meeting:

* Reissued for technical reasons.

 In the following listing, the formula "See ..." indicates consideration of the item on a previous occasion; the formula "See also ..." refers to consideration of a related item. The listing of the same document symbol under both formulas means that the item itself and the related item were considered in the course of the same week.

Letter dated 27 April 1992 from the Permanent Representative of Cuba to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council (see S/23370/Add.20 and Corr.1).

5. The last full summary statement (S/23370 and Corr.1) was issued on 9 January 1992. The last weekly addendum (S/23370/Add.51) covered developments through 26 December 1992. Since that date, that is during the week ending 2 January 1993, the Security Council took action on the following item:

An agenda for peace: preventive diplomacy, peacemaking and peace-keeping (see S/23370/Add.26 and S/23370/Add.43; see also S/23370/Add.4)

The Security Council resumed its consideration of the item at its 3154th meeting, held on 30 December 1992, in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations.

The President stated that, following consultations among members of the Security Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement (S/25036) on behalf of the Council:

"In pursuance of the President's statement of 29 October 1992 (S/24728) in connection with the Secretary-General's report entitled 'An Agenda for Peace' (S/24111), according to which 'the Security Council intends to study those paragraphs which are addressed to it, including paragraph 41 concerning the special economic problems which may concern other States when sanctions are imposed on a State', the Security Council examined the question of special economic problems of States as a result of sanctions imposed under Chapter VII of the Charter.

"The Security Council shares the observation made by the Secretary-General in paragraph 41 of his report that when such sanctions are imposed under Chapter VII of the Charter, it is important that States confronted with special economic problems have the right to consult the Security Council regarding such problems, as provided in Article 50. The Council agrees that appropriate consideration should be given to their situation.

"The Security Council notes the Secretary-General's recommendation that the Council devise a set of measures, involving the financial institutions and other components of the United Nations system, that can be put in place to insulate States from such difficulties.

"The Security Council, while noting that this matter is being considered in other fora of the United Nations, expresses its determination to consider this matter further and invites the Secretary-General to consult the heads of the international financial institutions, other components of the United Nations system and Member States of the United Nations, and to report to the Security Council as early as possible.

"The Security Council intends to continue its work on the Secretary-General's report as indicated in the President's statement of 29 October 1992 (S/24728)."

6. As at 1 January 1993, the list of matters of which the Security Council is seized is as follows:
